

First Presbyterian Church of Pittsford Facebook Page

You can be connected to our church whether you are staying home, traveling or living elsewhere as a snow-bird. Our Facebook page is here to reflect the spiritual and social LIFE of our intergenerational church.

How do I join the FPC Facebook page?

- Access the internet through your computer, tablet or smart phone
- Download the Facebook App (smart phone or tablet) or find the Facebook website
- Set up a Facebook account
- Using the Magnifying glass icon, search for First Presbyterian Church of Pittsford
 - You may have several options pop up: tap or click on the one for our church
 - When you are on the official FPC Pittsford page, tap or click on the “Like” symbol (thumbs up symbol). You are now a follower of FPC! ENJOY!

What will I see when I open my Facebook app?

Your personal Newsfeed or Wall will be displayed. You will see pictures and messages from your “friends” and from sites you are following such as First Presbyterian Church of Pittsford. You will also see many other posts which include commercial and political ads.

What is on the FPC Pittsford Facebook page?

- Spiritual messages, live streaming of services, links to YouTube streaming
- Announcements of church activities, mission and outreach events
- Pictures of our members and youth showing the life of the church

I don't want my picture or my child's picture on the church's page. How do I opt out?

- Notify the church office if you do not want your or your child's photo posted. When attending group functions, notify the organizer of your wishes.
- The church office can “take down” posts upon request

May I post on the church's Facebook Page?

- Contact the church office and share your information to be posted

What actions can I take with a post?

- Optional: by clicking the thumbs up button, you are “liking” a post. This is how we know we are reaching you and that you like what we are posting.
- Share: you can “share” a post with your friends and let them know of the good works of your church

For more information please contact Ginny Vorhis at vvorhis@outlook.com